

Why become a Peer Mentor?

Earn Credits!

Boost your college resume!

Help others!

Beginning fall 2020, El Modena upperclassmen can apply to enroll in a new class called Academic Peer Mentoring. Students who are accepted will learn to become a peer mentor and work with freshmen to help them be academically successful. Students who participate in this course not only earn credits and help new Vanguardians, they also earn recognition from the school that looks great on a college application.

What does it take to be a Peer Mentor?

- Have a desire to help others and your school
- Be a junior or senior
- Have a GPA of at least 3.0
- Submit an application through Google forms

If you are strong in specific academic areas or are bilingual, you are a great candidate! El Modena needs you to help make it an even greater school!

Don't wait! Enrollment in Academic Mentoring is limited. Apply today! Use the QR code to go to start your application.
