

AICCU

REGISTRATION REQUIRED

AICCU CAMPUS WEEK! MARCH 8-11

The Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities (AICCU) represents private, nonprofit colleges and universities located throughout the state. This virtual event is designed as a forum for colleges and universities to share information and guide prospective students to resources during short live sessions.

Each college and university has created a registration link available on the schedule provided through this link.